The Gingerbread Man Story

Read the short story together.

A little old woman baked a gingerbread man. When she opened the oven, out he jumped!

“Run, run, as fast as you can! You can’t catch me. I’m the Gingerbread Man!”

The old woman ran after him. The old man ran after him. A cow and a horse ran after him too. Nobody could catch him.

Then he came to a river. He could not swim. A fox said, “Hop on my tail. I will take you across.”

The water got deeper. “Hop on my nose,” said the fox. Snap! That was the end of the Gingerbread Man.

Retell the story to a grown-up. What happened first, next and last?
